Institute of Islamic Culture and Civilization is a socio-religious, educational, non-political and non-profit foundation emerged to re-engage and nourish Islamic ideas and ideals in the barren lands of Muslim world. This organization intends to promote moral, spiritual, ethical, and cultural values in the Muslim societies across territorial boundaries.

IICC intends to rethink the methodology for providing high standard of education and character building in the society. It also strives for bridging the gap between the material and spiritual dimensions. In this backdrop, IICC shouldered this responsibility of rethinking our roots and re-engaging with the contemporary intellectual challenges and crisis faced by the Muslim World.

IICC has constituted an award titled "IICC Award for promotion of Islamic Studies" to be conferred to any individual/s or institution/s who have worked in any capacity for the promotion of Islamic Studies as subject at any level.

The award for the year of 2013 is being conferred to "Centre of Central Asian Studies, University of Kashmir, Srinagar" for the promotion of multidisciplinary research in Islamic Studies discipline.
