

CENTRE OF CENTRAL ASIAN STUDIES

UNIVERSITY OF KASHMIR

Vision and Mission

Vision:

The CCAS envisions becoming a premier institution for multidisciplinary research on Central Asia's historical, cultural and geopolitical significance. It aims to advance knowledge by exploring the regions diverse heritage, trade networks, linguistic traditions and contemporary transformations fostering global academic knowledge.

Mission:

- Conducting high quality research and promoting academic exchanges and collaborations with national and international institutions.
- Engaging scholars, students, and policymakers in meaningful dialogue on the region's past and present.
- Disseminating research through conferences, publications and outreach programs to enhance understanding of Central Asia, its resource potential and cultural heritage.

Core Values:

- Academic Excellence – Commitment to high-quality, rigorous and original research.
- Interdisciplinary Approach – Encouraging diverse academic perspectives for holistic research
- Ethical Research – Upholding integrity, transparency, and objectivity in all scholarly activities
- Cultural Understanding – Promoting dialogue and appreciation of Central Asian Societies.